

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Alberta Standardbred Horse Association (ASHA) represents the interests of Standardbred industry participants and works to establish a close, understanding relationship between members, racetracks, racing associations, governing bodies and the public.

ASHA is seeking an Executive Director to manage the daily affairs of the Association and with the Board of Directors, represent the Association, the interests of its members and establish short and long-term objectives for the organization. This involvement includes the development, recommendation and implementation of policies and procedures. An important aspect of the position is the representation of the Association with other industry stakeholders, especially the provincial regulatory body and the provincial racetrack organizations.

Knowledge of the racing industry would be a definite asset but is not mandatory.

Interested applicants should apply to the President, ASHA, B-15, 6020 2nd St. S.E., Calgary, AB, T2H 2L8 or to tedbillo@asha.ab.ca and provide a summary of their qualifications along with a letter of interest by May 20, 2008.

Phone calls are not encouraged.

All applicants will receive a reply.
